INTER-LGU TRAVEL RESTRICTIONS SA CAVITE, LIFTED NA

Governor Jonvic Remulla

Sinabi ni Governor Jonvic Remulla nitong Setyembre 2, na muli nang papayagan ang pagbiyahe papunta sa ibang bayan sa loob ng Cavite ngayong nasa ilalim na ng Modified General Community Quarantine (MGCQ) ang lalawigan.

"Inter-LGU travel restrictions are lifted." aniya bagaman ipinaliwanag niyang maari pa ring magbigay ng sariling desisyon ang bawat alkalde. "Inter-LGU patronage is allowed (Mayors may take exception to this policy if they see that the COVID numbers continue to rise)."

Ang pagbiyaheng ito sa iba't-ibang bayan ay papayagan na ngunit sinabi ni Remulla na kailangan pa ring sundin ang itinakdang "curfew hours".

Sa ngayon, ang curfew hours sa buong lalawigan ay in-adjust na sa 9PM to 4AM, base pa rin sa anunsyo ng gobernador.

On September 1, Vice Governor Jolo Revilla gave a reminder to Cavite citizens to continue to be careful though Cavite is under Modified General Community Quarantine (MGCQ).

According to him, " My friends, our province will be under Modified General Community Quarantine (MGCQ) from September 1. But this doesn't mean that we should be confident and take care of ourselves instead we should be careful because it continues COVID-19 cases in our country are increasing."

" What's important is, except following minimum health standards, let's not lose hope that in the near future, this dark chapter of our history will end." Revilla added.

DTI's 'Bagsakan Sale' to head south of NCR on Sept. 4

Catch the 'Bagsakan Sale' as the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) brings great selections of Filipino products this Friday, Sept. 4, at the Civic Drive, Festival Mall in Alabang, Muntinlupa City, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The DTI Philippines' Bureau of Domestic Trade Promotion (BDTP) is encouraging the public to support our small businesses and enjoy great selections of Filipino products made by micro, small, medium enterprises (MSMEs) from the NCR, Bataan, Laguna, Rizal, and Samar.

Watch out for the complete product information and get ready with your orders, like and follow the BDTP Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/DTI.BDTP/>.

The DTI also encourages the public to be a #BUYani and help the Philippine economy bounce back by supporting local producers and businesses.

To recall, the DTI earlier launched "Buy Local, Go Lokal," a national media campaign that aims to help Philippine MSMEs who have been severely affected by the COVID 19 pandemic to weather the storm and create opportunities for their recovery and growth.

Buy Local, Go Lokal revolves around the powerful message for our countrymen to support Philippine MSMEs by shifting their buying patterns towards the consumption and purchase of Philippine fresh produce and manufactured goods.

The campaign likewise has helped stimulate and boost domestic travel, while encouraging Filipino consumers to patronize Philippine owned and operated facilities and services.source/PIA

Manila Mayor Isko backs DENR's Manila Bay beach nourishment project

MANILA – The city government of Manila expressed its full support to the national government and the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) in its implementation of the Manila Bay beach nourishment project that includes the overlaying of "white sand" in the area.

Manila Mayor Francisco 'Isko Moreno' Domagoso, in a press conference, said cleaning Manila Bay will entail a lot of costs, which is why the city government appreciates all the efforts of the DENR in cleaning the area.

"Natutuwa kami dahil (we are very happy because) they went beyond, to really make more vibrant Manila, we support DENR," Domagoso said.

Reacting to claims of some groups that the crushed dolomite boulders being overlayed along the Manila Bay beach is dangerous to the environment, Domagoso said that it is not for him to say the same and that he trusts that the DENR knows better on the issue.

"I don't think a government agency mandated to protect the environment will be the same to destroy it. That is the reason why they are called the Department of Environment and Natural Resources," he added.

For the meantime, he said that the city of Manila is grateful to the national government for giving attention to the cleanliness of the bay.

He added that the Manila city government is excited as well as to the final outcome of the project.

Domagoso, meanwhile, said the city government will do its share in reviving the beauty of Manila Bay, which is known for its breathtaking sunset view.

"We will continue to clean all those solid waste material in Manila Bay within our territorial jurisdiction. We will try to be more efficient in cleaning up our esteros, tributaries, the creeks, we will continue to clean it up," he said in a mix of Filipino and English.

Domagoso also called on those who live along the Manila Bay area not to throw their garbage and wastes in the water and for the establishment around the bay to follow the rules and regulations being imposed by the DENR most especially with regard to their wastewater. (PNA)

Municipality of Indang MESSAGE FROM THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT

Indang Town Government is sincerely cooperating with the whole people in celebration of the Feast of Dear Patron San Gregorio Magno.

We are blessed because despite the Covid-19 pandemic we are experiencing, we had a chance to make a simple celebration here in our parish. This is a big blessing that we should thank our Lord God.

As we always mention, we want to remind everyone that we continue to follow the existing policies and protocols of our government especially wearing face masks, hand washing and having social or physical distancing to all place. Expect that our Town Government continues to assure everyone's wellbeing and safety.

May this celebration of the Feast of Dear Patron San Gregorio Magno bring us more hope and deeper faith in our Lord God that we will survive this pandemic and we will be able to rise in our lives.

Thank you very much and God bless to all of us.

More Mass Swab Testing in Bacoor

It is estimated that 500 Bacooreño's belonging to vendors from the market and markets located in Molino 3 and Queensrow East undergo Expanded Targeted Mass Swab Testing that was conducted earlier at Camella Springville West Molino 3.

Having an Expanded Targeted Mass Swab Testing is important so that those who are positive in Covid-19 will be separated immediately and those who have joined will undergo contact tracing.

Thank you to the City Health Office, National Task Force, and to all who are included in this project for organizing another smooth and fast Expanded Targeted Mass Swab Testing.

SANGLEY Update

"In order to become an effective internationalist, one must strive to be a good nationalist. To be a worthy citizen of the world one must first prove himself to be a good Filipino."

— Carlos P. Romulo

Hindi maaaring itago na ang mother company ng CACC, ang China Construction & Communications Corporation (CCCC) ay dawit sa isyu ng Spratly Islands sa West Philippine Sea dahil ito ang grupong nagtayo ng mga military bases sa mga parte ng exclusive economic zones ng ating bansa.

Kaya't ngayon, ako po ay magbibigay ng aking pormal na posisyon at pahayag tungkol sa Sangley International Airport project:

I am a FILIPINO. I am also the Governor of the Province of Cavite.

I believe that for PROGRESS and development, the Philippines deserves a new airport.

I am unyielding in the belief that the SPRATLY ISLANDS AND THE WEST PHILIPPINE SEA BELONGS TO THE PHILIPPINES.

There is no room for compromise. No other country should lay claim on what is rightfully ours.

I believe that while free trade promotes PEACE and PROSPERITY, it should NOT be at the expense of our national dignity.

I have met with the CACC officials and I believe in their sincere desire to invest and construct a world class premiere gateway to our beloved country.

I believe that we should not get caught up in the middle of a superpower tug-of-war between the United States and China.

I believe that we should prioritize and adopt a "PHILIPPINES FIRST" policy that shall promote the interest of our nation, first and foremost.

While we need to be nationalistic, we also need to be pragmatic.

If fidelity to duty is the hallmark of a public servant, then civility in discourse should be the true north in the Philippines' quest for peace and progress.

We need to be Filipinos for FILIPINOS.

Sen. Revilla: Maximizing...p6

was incorporated in the said Committee Report, Revilla expressed his full support for the noble intent of the proposed legislation.

Presidential Decree No. 442 otherwise known as the Labor Code of the Philippines allows the employment of non-resident aliens or foreign nationals under certain conditions.

"To be able to take full advantage of this provision, this proposed measure seeks, among others, to include a new section in the Labor Code which will require foreign nationals who were issued with employment permits to implement an understudy or skills development program," Revilla said.

Revilla added that through such program, Filipinos will be recipients of transfer of technology and skills which will allow them to eventually perform the job done by the said foreign national.

A measure of similar nature was approved on Third Reading by the House of Representatives in the previous Congress and was transmitted to the Senate but did not prosper into becoming a law.

"Ngayon na naihain na po ang panukalang batas na ito sa plenaryo, naniniwala po ako na sa maipapasa na natin ito sa lalong madaling panahon.

Pinapahalagahan at sinusulong natin ang proteksiyon para sa ating mga manggagawa at ang pagpapaunlad ng kanilang kaalaman at kakayahan. Lalo na sa panahong ito na kailangan nating tugunan ang mga hamon na dala ng COVID-19 sa ating ekonomiya, ito ang pagkakataon na dapat nating paigtingin ang mga polisiya at programa na tutulong sa atin upang bumangon at manatiling matatag sa kabila ng mga pagsubok," Revilla said.

Church launches 'Yakapin ang Bagong Bukas' advocacy

The Catholic Bishops' Conference of the Philippines has embarked on a new advocacy that promotes "holistic approach" to the Church's responses on the coronavirus pandemic.

Dubbed as "Yakapin ang Bagong Bukas (Embrace the New Tomorrow)", the campaign was launched online at various church-based Facebook pages on National Heroes Day.

Acting CBCP president Bishop Pablo Virgilio David of Kalookan the advocacy aims to promote a "positive mindset" instead of just focusing on the usual health protocols.

"[It] will give flesh to the values of love, compassion, prudence, patience, and a call to action that is motivated by holiness and heroism," David said.

He invited the faithful to support the initiative and turn the health crisis as "an opportunity that will bring out the best in us".

This, the bishop added, if the people "can respond together heroically, rise above our personal interests, and transcend our differences for the common good".

Spearheaded by at least three CBCP Commissions: Health Care, Social Communication, and Youth, the campaign calls on Filipinos to hold on to their faith amid the crisis "and make it their primary guiding force as they 'embrace the new tomorrow'".

As the Church celebrates the Year of Ecumenism, Interreligious Dialogue and Indigenous Peoples, the advocacy also took the path of inter-Christian, interfaith, and intercultural collaboration.

During the virtual launching, among the highlights were an interfaith prayer service and a simultaneous one-minute tolling of church bells nationwide to symbolize the call for faith and unity.

The faith-based leaders who participated in the community prayer include Bishop Reuben Abante of the Lighthouse Bible Baptist Church; Elder Taniela Wakolo of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints; Timuey Lito Palma, Tribal Chief-tain of the Langkat, IP Traditional Worship in Cotabato, Mindanao; Imam Ebra Moxsir, AL-HAJ, President of the Imam Council of the Philippines and Venerable Miao Jing Shih, Head of Abbess of the Fo Guang Shan Mabuhay Temple; prayed as one for the Filipinos' physical and spiritual healing.

An audio-visual production for the YBB advocacy was also presented for the first time by Bishop Marcelino Antonio Maralit of Boac, who also shared the concept behind the campaign.

CBCP collaborated with Filipino firms Unilab, Inc. and RiteMed Philippines, Inc. in producing the AVP, which will also be distributed to parishes, schools and civic organizations to help spread the advocacy's message across the country.

Also in the gathering were government officials from different agencies, leaders of civic organizations, including those representing the medical community, elderly, youth, education, family, and the marginalized sectors.

The virtual gathering is part of CBCP's ongoing dialogue with the government, private sector and civil society groups to seek better ways to mitigate the impact of the pandemic on Filipinos.

ASEAN ACCELERATING THAILAND'S BIOECONOMY

Thailand is accelerating large investment projects in bio-fuels and biochemicals which will make use of agricultural raw materials and Internet of Things technology to enhance productivity, in an attempt to boost the growth of farm sector and strengthen supply chain for BCG industries. The Ministry of Industry and the Eastern Economic Corridor Office are pushing forward the private sector's development of US$-2 billion "Bio Hub" complex in Chachoengsao Province. To be located at 70 kilometers north of Bangkok, the complex will house a US$-0.4-billion biofuel and biochemical facilities for the new generation of biochemical products and biodiesel B100. The ministry will speed up the remaining US$ 1.6 billion worth of investment in the production facilities for bio-energy, biopharmaceuticals and future of healthy food and biorefinery facilities which will benefit from cassava plantations in the area. A US$-1.3 billion biorefinery complex will be built in Lopburi Province of the country's lower northern region with a cooperation from businesses and sugarcane growers to turn agricultural raw materials to alternative energy and biochemicals such as lactic acid, yeast and enzymes. The ministry will also accelerate investment in US$-1-billion in bio-refinery complex to Nakhon Sawan and Kamphaeng Petch provinces, in the country's lower Northern region, to produce ethanol for power plants and biochemicals for food production. The EEC office will also speed up investment complexes in pipeline in Chacheongsao, Rayong and Chonburi provinces of country's central region, worth a combine of US$ 314 million. The Thai government also plans to expand the investment for bioeconomy to other parts of the country including Ubon Ratchathani, Sisaket, Yasothon and Amnat Charoen provinces in the country's lower northeastern region to make use of vast plantations of cassava and sugarcanes. Top-notch Facilities The EEC Office is pushing forward development of an integrated biotechnology complex, located at the Eastern Economic Corridor Innovation Zone (EECi) in Wang Chan Valley, Rayong Province, which will support matching of demand and supply for R&D, commercial development for innovations and job matching. EECi will house 1,400-acre "Biopolis" compound which is designed to offer an integrated ecosystem for innovations and business development in biotechnology. Well-positioned to become a leading R&D center for biotechnology in ASEAN, Biopolis will collaborate with businesses to determine R&D topics for high-value products such as functional ingredients, biochemicals and bioprocess, and provide comprehensive assistance to businesses such as prototype production, incubation, business scale up, startup exchange program and training. The Biopolis will accommodate agricultural technologies plant factory, sensing technology used to raise productivity for breeding of high-value plants, and demonstrate plantation and harvest as well as offer technical assistance to agricultural businesses. It seeks to collaborate with EECi's "Food Innopolis" to upgrade competitive of the country's food industry and "Agropolis", the center for smart electronics, robotics and Internet of Things to apply Agri-tech for developments toward innovative agriculture. With the presence of research centers, science and engineering academies and secondary schools, EECi will strengthen collaborations among the public sector, businesses and academic institutions innovations, business development and human resources management. EECi is located near open-field plantations where Agri-tech such as Global Navigation Satellite System, remote sensing and Artificial Intelligence which lays foundations for precision farming will be deployed to raise productivity of plantation. product of our continuous digital transformation efforts over the years, which is also aligned with the call of Finance Secretary and Social Security Commission Chairman Carlos Dominguez III to expand the use of digital technologies for the prompt delivery of our services," Ignacio said.

She added that the initiative advances the SSS' compliance with the Republic Act No. 11032 or the Ease of Doing Business and Efficient Government Service Delivery Act of 2018 and will help ensure the continuous and efficient delivery of SSS services amid the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic.

Following the first day of the month-long celebration, the SSS will run an information drive about the ExpreSSS services from September 2 to 30. Weekly uSSSap Tayo live episodes will be streamed on the SSS Facebook page. At the same time, webinars will be conducted thrice a week. Registration links for webinars will be posted on the SSS Facebook page.

Webinar topics for the first and third weeks will focus on online services such as loan and SS number applications, Payment Reference Number Generation, Employment Report (R-1A) Form submission, Sickness Notification, Maternity Notification, and Sickness Benefit Reimbursement Applications.

For the second and fourth weeks, topics will be about online benefit applications for Unemployment, Retirement, and Funeral; and online enrollment of disbursement accounts.

"We encourage our members and their beneficiaries, pensioners, covered-employers, and the public to participate in these activities to keep themselves in the loop as we continuously strive to bring our services closer to them via online services," Ignacio concluded.

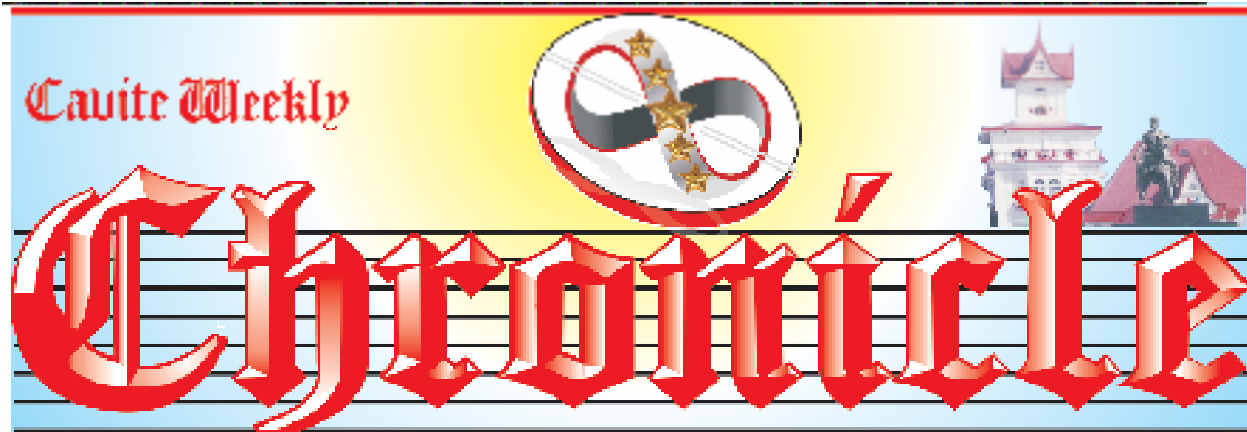

Under Presidential Proclamation No. 682, s. 2004, signed by the then President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo, every month of September since 2004 shall be known as "Social Security Month."

The proclamation aims to address the need to stimulate public awareness on matters involving social security protection, encourage Filipinos to take personal responsibility in uplifting their economic and social conditions through active membership in the SSS, and highlight the role of the SSS in developing and promoting a viable, universal and equitable social security protection scheme through world-class service.

For this cause, every month of September, the SSS intensifies its efforts to promote the importance of SSS membership and publicize the programs and benefits it offers and its role in nation-building.

2 resigned Cavite village execs may still face raps: DILG

DILG Undersecretary and spokesperson
Jonathan Malaya

MANILA – Two officials of a village in Dasmariñas City, Cavite who were caught having sex during a supposed online meeting may still face charges despite quitting their posts, Interior Secretary Eduardo Año said on Friday.

“Even if they resign, they will still face charges depending on what they did during their tenure in office,” Año told the Philippine News Agency in a phone interview.

DILG Undersecretary and spokesperson Jonathan Malaya said the DILG can still pursue administrative charges against Barangay Fatima Dos chairperson Jesus Estil.

Malaya stressed that “resignation does not extinguish his administrative liability since the act was done while he was in office.”

“But he can no longer be suspended or relieved but instead fine or disqualification from public office may be imposed against him,” Malaya said.

He noted the DILG has yet to receive Estil's resignation letter.

Malaya said the agency's investigation team was asked to submit at the soonest possible time the result of its investigation to determine the liability of Estil and his partner and recommend his prosecution to the Office of the Ombudsman and the Sangguniang Panlungsod (City Council) of Dasmariñas.
