

SEN. REVILLA PUSHES FOR MEASURE PROVIDING FREE PUBLIC HOUSING

"I dream of a tomorrow where Filipinos are no longer forced to make the sidewalks their homes. No child, after all, should grow up thinking the street is his home. We have to make this world better for all especially for the poor – that is what social justice demands", Sen Revilla stressed.

Sharing his aspiration that all Filipinos should have a decent shelter regardless of their socioeconomic standing, Sen. Revilla filed Senate Bill No. 25 or the "Free Public Housing Act" that seeks to amend the "Department of Human Settlements and Urban Development Act" to propose new provisions that shall institute a program providing free public housing.

In a report released by DHSUD, the last estimate of the country's housing backlog stood at 6.75 million units. The Department also projected that at year 2040, the backlog might reach 22 million, if not addressed properly today.

The bill aims to address the need of many Filipinos, especially those who are homeless, vulnerable, and marginalized by including in the mandate of DHSUD the provision of the free public housing program which should assure security of tenure

Hontiveros, Padilla may collaborate on passage of divorce bill

MANILA— Opposition Senator Risa Hontiveros said she will collaborate with neophyte colleague Robin Padilla to pass the divorce bill. Hontiveros assured she is ready to work even with senators from the majority bloc in her advocacies for women and children. "As in the past six years, I am always able to cross party lines and unite with other senators to push important laws," she said in a statement on Monday, July 11. Expecting to retain her chairmanship of the Committee on Women, Children, Family Relations, and Gender Equality, Hontiveros said she would immediately work on the bill once it is referred to her. "Upang mapabilis ang pagdinig, pwede naming isama sa record 'yung naging hearing at committee report sa dissolution of marriage bill noong 18th Congress (To make the proceedings faster, we can include the previous hearings and committee report for the dissolution of marriage bill in the 18th Congress)," she said. The dissolution of the marriage bill, Hontiveros noted, is an urgent reform measure for Filipinos who are stuck in broken or abusive relationships. Like Padilla, she said the bill will protect marriages, not destroy them. "To be clear, it will not affect the sacrament of marriage as observed by many religions. The law only af-

P1.4B more funds needed to continue EDSA's 'Libreng Sakay' -DOTr
The Department of Transportation (DOTr) on Monday said it needed an additional P1.4 billion to fund its "Libreng Sakay" program for the EDSA bus carousel route, until the end of the year. During the Lag-ing Handa public briefing, DOTr Secretary Jaime Bautista said the current budget for the free ride is not enough if it would be extended until December 31. "We will ask for assistance from the president to receive such budget at the DOTr," Bautista said. A day after assuming office, on July 1, President Ferdinand "Bongbong" Marcos Jr. approved the extension of the free ride program on Edsa carousel and free rides for students in the Metro Rail Transit-3 (MRT-3), Light Rail Transit-2, and Philippine National Railways. The move is seen to "ease the burden of rising living expenses on Filipino families and help them save money" amid the skyrocketing prices of fuel and basic commodities. Similar to his surprise inspection of the MRT-3 and some line agencies of the DOTr, Bautista bared plans to tap other modes of public transport with Land Transportation Franchising and Regulatory Board (LTFRB) Chair Cheloy Garafil to get a first-hand experience of taking public transport these days. "This morning I spoke with the LTFRB chair and I told her, let's try riding the bus and the jeep and she said she's up for it," he said. Bautista earlier said the country's transportation system would be transformed and elevated to global standards under the Marcos administration. To do this, Bautista said the department would study and implement global standards in the air, maritime, rail, and road transport sectors by adopting the industry's best practices. "We will study the countries that have been successful at implementing these standards. Cont.on PAGE 9

Hontiveros, Padilla may collaborate...from p2

fects marriage as a legal relationship creating obligations between spouses. It will have no impact on healthy marriages. It only serves to help those stuck in unions that have become irreparably toxic, broken, or abusive," she said.

Hontiveros sees a better chance for the dissolution of marriage bill to pass in the 19th Congress "one step at a time".

In a Facebook live forum on Sunday, Padilla said that while he favors marriages to last forever, some marriages are doomed because of irreconcilable differences.

"Hindi po ito kailanman na sumasalungat sa pag-aasawa. Hindi ito isang bagay na kami ay kontra na magkaroon ng forever. Katunayan, ito pong panukalang ito ay nagbibigay ng proteksyon unang una sa mag-asawa -- babae at lalaki -- at sa kanilang mga magiging anak (My bill is never meant to destroy marriages. We would never object to marriages that last forever. In fact, my bill aims to protect the marriage, including the woman, the man, and their children)," he said.

The Philippines and Vatican City are the only nations that do not recognize divorce.

Padilla also stressed the need to protect women who, after separating from their husbands, are usually subjected to unfair rumors, labeling the children they will have with their new partners as bastards o illegitimate.

Under Padilla's bill, a petition may be filed for divorce if the husband and/or wife cannot fulfill his/her obligation in the marriage or have irreconcilable differences; marriage was annulled abroad; presumed dead; there is a violation of the Anti-Violence Against Women and their Children Act; and there is an attempt on the life of the child of the couple or of the petitioner, among others.

The bill also provides for a "mandatory cooling off period" after the petition is filed.

Meanwhile, the petition for divorce may be dismissed if the two parties submit a verified joint motion or if the court finds evidence of collusion between them. source:(PNA) menting their transport programs and we will adopt those that benefit passengers,” he said.

He called on the riding public to help the Marcos administration by following the rules of transport and to bring feedback to the proper authorities.

“We won’t be able to find the solution to all programs but if you can give us suggestions and recommendations, you’ll be able to help us solve these problems,” he said.

Prior to the start of the Marcos administration on July 1, the Edsa free ride program was extended until July 31.

The program was funded through the LTFRB’s Service Contracting Phase 3 which ended on June 30. SOURCE:(PIA-NCR)

Sen. Revilla, having studied the current status of housing programs, crafted the measure in such a way that resettlement areas are now mandated to be accessible for employment opportunities, health care services, schools, and other social facilities. Situation on the ground revealed that many of the resettlement areas today are built too far away from the city where many opportunities and essential services are available.

Also recognizing that public housing should not only be free, but more importantly, decent and safe, the proposed bill also mandates that housing will include safe drinking water, adequate sanitation, and energy for cooking, lighting, and food storage.

Sen. Revilla echoes what President Ramon Magsaysay once said, that “those who have less in life should have more in law.”/ Press Release,BRevilla website
