Revilla says Abalos call good for confidence-building

Senator Ramon Revilla Jr.

Senator Ramon Bong Revilla, Jr. sees nothing wrong with Department of Interior and Local Government (DILG) Secretary Benhur Abalos' call for senior police officers to tender their courtesy resignations.

Sec. Abalos asked for the resignation of officers of the Philippine National Police (PNP) with the rank of Full Colonel and General. The Secretary said this was to finally put to rest reports of high-ranking police officials' alleged involvement in the illicit drug trade. According to Abalos, those who have nothing to hide will have no problem with submitting their courtesy resignations.

The solon said this may be good for confidence-building between the country's leadership, the PNP, and the public. "This will show that everyone is accountable and no one is untouchable," Revilla said. "Even the Chief PNP and chaplains are not spared," he added. "Ipinapakita nito na kaisa ang lahat sa pagbabalik ng tiwala ng publiko sa pulisya - especially the highest ranking officers".

The lawmaker further explained that the courtesy resignations will not be an indictment against the PNP, but rather, a measure that shows the police organization serves at the pleasure and trust - to the best interest of - the public.

"The PNP holds its personnel to the highest standards - lalo na yung mga nasa mabababang ranggo na araw-araw nating nakikita. It's good to show that the organization also holds those in the highest ranks to at least same standards," the senator said. "Maganda na makita yan ng publiko," he ended.

CALAMBA CITY, Laguna (PIA) – The National Telecommunications Commission (NTC) assured mobile phone subscribers that their personal data are safe under the SIM Registration Law.

NTC assures data privacy under SIM Registration Law

Lawyer Jualie Lanting of NTC Region IV-A said the individual's data privacy will not be compromised with the use of digital registration platforms to secure personal data.

"Kasama rin ang National Privacy Commission (NPC) dito para masiguro na sinusunod ng mga telecommunication companies (telco) ang implementasyon nito, lalo na sa pag-store ng mga data na ibinibigay ng mga subscriber," Lanting said during the weekly Sulong Calabarzon online program of PIA IV-A.

The NTC likewise closely monitors telcos in implementing Republic Act 11934 that was signed into law by President Ferdinand Marcos, Jr. in October 2022. The law requires mobile phone users to register their SIM (subscriber identity module) card to help curb the proliferation of crimes such as terrorism, scams, and fake news peddling through text scams.

Lanting said the Covid-19 pandemic and the proliferation of text scams made the passage of the SIM law urgent to help law enforcement agencies protect citizens by tracking criminals and terrorists who use their mobile phones in their activities.

"Napabilis ang pagpasa ng SIM Registration Act dahil sa nitong mga nakaraang buwan ay marami tayong natatanggap na text scams. Ito ang isa sa mga layunin ng SIM Registration," she added.

P680K shabu nasabat sa drug dealer

Dasmariñas, Cavite— Nasa mahigit sa 100 gramo ng shabu ang nakumpiska ng pulisya sa isang pinaniniwalaang big-time na dealer ng droga sa lungsod ng Dasmariñas sa inilatang na Drugbust operation kamakailan.

Kinilala ng pulisya ang suspek na si Dionisio Ibañez alias Buboy nasa hustong gulang at residente ng nasabing lugar.

Sa ulat, nagkasa ng buy-bust ang Provincial Drug Enforcement Unit ng Cavite Police Provincial Office kasama ang PDEA laban sa suspek sa Barangay H2 ng nasabing lungsod.

Isang pulis ang umaklong buyer at nakipag-deal sa target na suspek.

Nang magpositibo ang bilihan ay dito na dinakma ng grupo ang suspek at nakumpiskahan ng 100 gramo ng shabu na may halagang P680,000.

Narekober din sa suspek ang P40,000 marked money na ginamit sa buy-bust.

Mayor Raffy Dualan and Naic Municipal Agriculture Office personnel recently led the distribution of financial assistance or initial capital to give the Members of the Sitio Lontoc Magtatalaba Fishermen and Fishermen Association and Timalan River Balsahan Inc as well as Individual Oyster Farmers in the Town of Naic.

This financial aid can be used as investment or capital to recover the fishing and fishing sector from the economic collapse caused by the pandemic of recent years.

The Naic City Government led by Mayor Raffy Dualan and Vice Mayor Jun Dualan continues its efforts to interact with different government agencies to lay out appropriate programs for the citizens.

5, the NTC said some 15 million SIM cards have been registered with their respective telcos. More subscribers are expected to register before the April 26, 2023 deadline.

"Doon naman sa mga bagong billing SIM card, deactivated na ang mga ito. Kailangan lamang ito iregister bago gamitin," Lanting clarified.

She said unregistered SIM numbers will be automatically deactivated after April 26.

that service providers can immediately replace their registered number.

"Wala ring nakalagay sa batas sa batas na naglilimita kung ilang SIM ang pwedeng i-register ng isang indibidwal," Lanting added.

The NTC noted a few hiccups during the initial registration period that began last December 27 such as internet traffic due to the heavy volume of registrants.

Meanwhile, lost and stolen mobile phones with registered numbers should be immediately reported for deactivation so

Lanting said telcos have already resolved the traffic issues in their respective registration portals. (PB).source:PIA
