Hidilyn Diaz wins PH's first-ever Olympic gold

MANILA – After 97 years, the elusive Olympic gold has finally been taken by the Philippines.

Hidilyn Diaz became the first Filipino athlete to win it all in an Olympic event after winning the women's 55-kg. weightlifting competition at the Tokyo International Forum in Japan on Monday night.

Diaz, the 2016 Rio Olympics silver medalist, prevailed in a neck and neck showdown with China's Liao Qiuyun in the clean-and-jerk lift as their battle for the gold went down the wire.

Finishing tied with Diaz in the snatch with a 97-kg. maximum lift, Liao lifted 126 kg. in her final lift, forcing Diaz to go for 127 to steal the top spot from Liao.

Diaz, however, smoothly cleared the 127-kg. lift to win it all, also setting an Olympic record in

'Build, Build, Build': Paving the way to progress

Press Release/PNA

MANILA – The country is inching closer to reaping the gains of economic development through the 'Build, Build, Build' program of the Duterte administration, which resulted in the construction of several infrastructure projects nationwide.

Based on its latest data, the Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH) has completed a total of 29,264 kilometers of roads, including those that have been widened and rehabilitated.

Of this figure, a total of 2,025 kilometers are farm-to-market roads, 94.99 kilometers are farm-to-mill roads, 1,376.26 kilometers are missing links, 1,470.51 kilometers are bypasses or diversion roads, 149.65 kilometers lead to airports, 293.19 kilometers lead to seaports, 703.54 kilometers lead to economic zones and 2,436.40 kilometers lead to declared tourism destinations.

It added that a total of 3,122.73 kilometers were maintained, 4,686 kilometers widened and 3,591.96 kilometers rehabilitated and upgraded.

Among them are the North Luzon Expressway (NLEX) Harbor Link Segment 10, the Cavite-Laguna Expressway, the Tarlac-Pangasinan-La Union Expressway, the Laguna Lake Highway, the Candon City Bypass Road in Ilocos Sur, the Slaughter House Road in Davao City, the Pulilan-Baliuag Diversion Road in Bulacan.

The NLEX Harbor Link Segment 10 now connects the Port Area in Manila to NLEX and includes three exit off-ramps -- Segment 10-C3 Ramp to Caloocan City, Dagat-Dagatan Ramp to Malabon City and C3-R10 Ramp to Navotas City.

These also include the Calapan-Roxas Road in Oriental Mindoro, the Mandaue Causeway Road in Cebu, the Dipolog-Oroquieta Road in Misamis Occidental, the Dumaguete North Road in Negros Oriental, and the Taytay-El Nido Road in Palawan.

Road links, bridges

The DPWH said 5,950 bridges were completed included in the works those have widened (1,366); retrofitted (1,805); rehabilitated (1,389); replaced (297) and some 738 local bridges have been constructed.

Among them are the Lucban Bridge in Cagayan, the Marcos Bridge in Marikina, the Sicapo Bridge in Ilocos Norte, the Anduyan Bridge in La Union, the Tallang Bridge in Cagayan, the Bolo-Bolo Bridge in Misamis Oriental, the Caguray Bridge in Occidental Mindoro, the Tinongdan Bridge, the Pasac-Culcul in Pampanga, the Aganan Bridge in Iloilo, the Maddiangat Bridge in Nueva Viscaya and the Pigalo Bridge in Isabela.

Last month, the DPWH also opened the Sta. Monica-Lawton Bridge known as Kalayaan Bridge which connects Lawton Avenue in Makati City and Sta. Monica Street in Pasig City.

Through the Kalayaan Bridge, motorists will be spared from traffic congestion going in and out of Makati and Bonifacio Global City in Taguig and Pasig and Mandaluyong City.

Meanwhile, the Estrella-Pantaleon Bridge connecting the cities of Mandaluyong and Makati and Binondo-Intramuros Bridge Project, both China-funded projects, are set to be completed soon.

As of June 22, the four-lane Estrella-Pantaleon Bridge is 93 percent complete. It would be a 506.46-meter pre-stressed concrete rigid frame bridge with corrugated steel webs, replacing the temporary two-lane box truss bridge made of modular steel components dismantled in 2019.

Meanwhile, the Binondo-Intramuros Bridge is now 70 percent complete, with its substantial completion expected in December this year.

The iconic structure will connect the historic districts of Binondo and Intramuros in Manila and will carry extra traffic of around 30,000 vehicles per day. It will also help extend the life of existing Jones, Delpan, and MacArthur Bridges by decongesting traffic.

The projects are part of the Metro Manila Logistics Improvement Program to address the traffic gridlock in major roads by constructing new bridges crossing Pasig and Marikina Rivers and Manggahan Floodway.

Earlier in July, President Rodrigo Duterte led the inauguration of the Central Luzon Link Freeway which con-

Pag-IBIG Fund finances 10,640 homes for low-wage earners in H1 2021, up 99%

Pag-IBIG Fund extended socialized housing loans to 10,640 members from the minimum-wage and low-income sectors in the first half of 2021 despite the continuing pandemic, top officials announced Wednesday (July 21).

The number of socialized home loans make up 24% of the total 43,573 home loans released by the agency from January to June this year. The number is equivalent to P4.66 billion or 11% of the P44.34 billion home loans released by the agency during the first half of the year. Amid the health crisis, the number of socialized home loans increased by 99% - nearly double the 5,357 socialized home loans granted during the same period last year, while the amount released also grew by 111% from P2.21 billion in 2020.

“We believe that home ownership is a right of every Filipino family. With the Affordable Housing Program of Pag-IBIG Fund, achieving the dream of homeownership is made possible especially for minimum-wage workers. The program's lowest rates and longest term allow our members from the low-income sector to buy or build a home of their own. This is our way of adhering to President Rodrigo Duterte's call for government institutions to carry out programs that address the needs of the underserved sector,” said Secretary Eduardo D. del Rosario, Chairperson of the 11-member Pag-IBIG Fund Board of Trustees and Secretary of the Department of Human Settlements and Urban Development (DH-SUD).

The agency's Affordable Housing Program (AHP) is designed for members who earn up to P15,000 a month within the National Capital Region (NCR) and members who earn up to P12,000 per month outside the NCR. Under the AHP, Pag-IBIG Fund offers a subsidized rate of 3% per annum for socialized home loans up to P580,000.

Pag-IBIG Fund Chief Executive Officer Acmad Rizaldy P. Moti said that the 3% rate offered by Pag-IBIG Fund is the lowest in the market, and has been made available to eligible members since May 2017.

“During this difficult time,

Pag-IBIG Fund Chief Exec. Officer Acmad Rizaldy P. Moti

Pag-IBIG Fund's Affordable Housing Program has become the means to support our low-income members in helping them acquire their own homes. Because we are exempt from tax under our Charter, Pag-IBIG Fund can afford to offer the lowest rates for the home loans of minimum and low-wage workers. Aside from keeping our interest rates low, we also reduced its insurance premiums, which keeps the monthly amortization at an affordable P2,445.30 for a socialized home loan of up to P580,000. And what's more, qualified borrowers will never have to put out cash for equity under the program. All of these are part of our efforts to provide the best home financing program for our members who earn minimum wage,” Moti said. (END)

Business success story in the heart of the Philippines

By Department of Trade & Industry - MIMAROPA

The small island of Marinduque is famously known for its Moriones Festival, an annual Lenten festival observed during the Holy Week. But the beauty of the province’s culture and heritage doesn’t end there. Marinduque is also top of mind when it comes to arrowroot or uraro cookies. But for a small island brimming with ingenious entrepreneurs in this industry, how does one keep afloat?

“Business does not only make you rich but it also makes you strong, innovative, and persevering to leave a legacy that your children can inherit in the future,” inspiring words from Felisa Rey, owner of Rey’s Bakeshop in Sta. Cruz, Marinduque.

Rey’s Bakeshop formerly known as Josel Rodil’s Bakery was established in 1987 by Josefa Rodil. As a home economics teacher, Rosil used to attend different seminars, especially on food processing until she came up with her version of arrowroot cookies. After her retirement in 1992, the small home-based business moved into a separate bakery shop. Their offer other pastries and bread aside from arrowroot cookies.

The business started with two (2) full-time employees: Felisa Pedernal-Rey (adopted child of Josefa Rodil) and her husband Rolando Rey who served as the marketing arm and production staff of the business. What started as a simple home business turned into one of the province’s all-time favorites as they offer their cookies around Marinduque.

With the couple’s hard work and perseverance, in 2014, Josel Rodil’s Bakery was transferred to Rey and was then renamed Rey’s Bakeshop. The bakeshop was able to support the needs of their family. It was in 2017 when their daughter Eunice Rey quit her corporate job abroad and helped them in managing the business.

As the industry gets more saturated over time, daughter Eunice Rey decided to join the second batch of the Department of Trade and Industry’s (DTI) Kapatid Mentor Micro-Enterprise (KMME) program in 2018. KMME is a mentorship program designed by DTI as a mini Masters in Business Administration course, offered free for entrepreneurs to level up their businesses.

10 of those inside the house), unfortunately, 9 out of 10 nag (turned) positive,” Mercado said.

Mercado said the city health office also conducted antigen test in Addas 2C and nine more residents tested positive for Covid-19.

“So in Addas 2C, we have a total of 18 there,” Mercado said.

She said 12 more individuals in El Grande also yielded positive for Covid-19 after undergoing antigen test on Monday.

Mercado said the Department of Health (DOH) advised the city government to treat all the individuals tested positive in Addas2C and El Grande as Delta variants.

“As per DOH, treat it as Delta variant yung nag positive kasi ang test ng Delta variant after two weeks pa malalaman, since exposed sila sa Delta variant index patient, considered lahat yun Delta na (those who resulted positive since the test for Delta variant will come after two more weeks, and since they were exposed to the Delta variant index patient, they are all considered Delta variants),” she said.

Mercado said they still have to wait for the genome sequencing test results for confirmation.

In the meantime, she said all the necessary precautions are being undertaken to prevent the spread of Delta variants.

She said 288 individuals in El Grande and 247 in Addas 2C underwent antigen test.

With the new development, Mercado said the granular lockdown in El Grande and Addas 2C has been extended until August 9 and 10, respectively, affecting 80 households.

“Yung mga na test namin na nag-positive, in-isolate na namin sa community, nilagay na namin sila sa mga isolation facilities (Those tested positive have already been isolated, they are now in our isolation facilities),” Mercado said.

She said the city government has already asked assistance from the DOH as it continues to conduct antigen test particularly those who have close contact with the 30 individuals tested for Covid-19.

Mercado said both index cases have no travel history, except in a Metro Manila hospital where they underwent checkups.

As of Tuesday, she said Bacoor has recorded 730 active Covid-19 cases.

The city government has vaccinated 82,432 individuals for the first dose, while 33,549 have already received their full doses of the Covid-19 jabs, Mercado said.

Mercado called on her constituents to continue following the basic health and safety protocols and to stay at home as much as possible. source:(PNA) nects Tarlac and Nueva Ecija within 20 minutes.

It is part of the Luzon Spine Expressway Network, which is aimed at reducing travel time from the northernmost part of Luzon, Ilocos, to the southernmost part, Bicol, by over 50 percent via the construction of a 101-kilometer high standard highway network.

In his 2017 State of the Nation Address (SONA), Duterte said the government is targeting to increase government spending on infrastructure from 5 percent of GDP in 2017 to 7 percent of GDP by 2022, amounting to nearly USD180 billion (PHP9 trillion) in infrastructure projects.

“We will make the next few years the —Golden Age of Infrastructure in the Philippines to enhance our mobility and connectivity and thereby spur equitable growth and development in the country. In other words, we are going to ‘Build, Build and Build,’” he added.

Covid-19 response facilities

As the country’s journey to progress made a sudden turn due to the coronavirus pandemic last year, the DPWH has also played a vital role in responding to the pandemic as it spearheaded the construction of facilities for patients and medical workers nationwide.

Based on DPWH data, over 653 Covid-19 facilities such as modular hospitals, off-site dormitories, and isolation facilities have been erected near health facilities and on government lots. These facilities have a bed capacity of 23,117.

The DPWH aims to build a total of 816 facilities with a total bed capacity of 27,267.

The most recent mega quarantine facility that has been turned over to the local government unit was the newly-converted Zamboanga Convention Center in Pasonanca, Zamboanga City.

It has 188 beds and will provide management, monitoring, and treatment of asymptomatic and moderate Covid-19 patients.

Among the other mega facilities are located in the National Capital Region (NCR) such as in the cities of Quezon, Parañaque.

The first batch of health facilities are: the Rizal Memorial Coliseum particularly the Ninoy Aquino Stadium in Manila; the Philippine International Convention Center (PICC) Forum Halls and the World Trade Center (WTC) both located in Pasay City.

Flood control projects, classrooms

The DPWH also completed a total of 11,340 flood mitigation structures since June 2016 which aimed at protecting flood-prone areas across the country.

Those that have been constructed include the Mandaluyong Main

Drainage Project, the pumping stations in Barangays Wawang Polo and Coloong, the Flood Risk Management Project for Cagayan River, the Flood Risk Management Project for Tagoloan River, the Leyte Tide Embankment Project and the Pasig Marikina River Flood Control Project.

A total of 150,149 classrooms for elementary and secondary schools were built nationwide while another 17,647 classrooms are in various stages of implementation.

These include the National High School in Alaminos, Pangasinan, the Alejandra Navarro National High School in Davao City and the Bagong Pag-Asa Elementary School.

From then on, Rey’s Bakeshop has been included in DTI’s different programs such as the One Town, One Product (OTOP) where they availed free services such as laboratory testing for Nutrition Facts, new label and packaging, trademark registration with the Intellectual Property Office (IPO) and barcode registration to GS1 Philippines. She also joined local trade fairs such as the Marinduque Expo and MIMAROPA Naturally, among others.

She participated as well in different DTI seminars such as SGS Kaagapay sa Negosyo Program, traceability, e-commerce, and Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) and sanitation standard operating procedures.

From a P200 starting capital, its assets increased to P3 million and its manpower grew with ten (10) full-time and five (5) part-time employees. Its annual sales of P100,000 also increased to P1.5 million.

But as the business was growing, it was in 2019 when the family faced one big hurdle in their life with the passing of Rolando Rey. Eunice took over the business with the supervision of her mother.

As an answer to the pandemic, Rey’s Bakeshop started selling its products online through different e-commerce channels. Through the use of social media, Rey’s product reached other provinces such as Laguna, Cavite, and even some parts of Metro Manila. Moreover, the small farmers in their community became the backbone of the business to answer the insufficient supply of raw materials.

The transformation of Rey’s Bakeshop is a testament that perseverance, innovation, and being strong-willed run in the culture of Marinduque. And that the transfer of legacy from generation to generation transcends biological family ties. (DTI MIMAROPA)
