DOT taps int'l media for PH promotion

MANILA -- The Department of Tourism (DOT) has partnered with international media to showcase the Philippines and boost tourist arrivals from different parts of the world recently.

The DOT has placed advertisements showcasing different tourist attractions in media, such as the Discovery Channel, Fox, CNN, among others.

"Promotion is non-stop but we change the material every two months. Aside from (commercial) spots, there are additional values such as articles, episode roadshows like Discovery with their organic shows, the ones they develop under their brand, promoting the Philippines in depth in its agriculture and sustainable tourism, which is more educational," DOT Assistant Secretary for Branding and Marketing Communications Howard Lance Uy-

President Duterte swears in new military, police officers

President Rodrigo Roa Duterte administered the oath recently of the newly-appointed high ranking officers of the Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) and the Philippine National Police (PNP), asking them to safeguard people's interests.

President Duterte swore in more than 90 newly-promoted generals and flag officers of the AFP and star rank officers of the PNP at the Rizal Hall in Malacañang.

In his speech, the President said that he is satisfied with the performance of the military and the police adding however that the police need reforms to correct many issues.

"Ang sa police lang, it needs to be corrected. It has always been a problem sa any administration for that matter," he said asking the public to give him time to address the problem.

President Duterte also reminded the officers not to forget humanity despite their position.

"Wala lahat except humanity. 'Yun lang. Bahala ka na mag-interpret ng ano — kung anong makakabuti para sa kapwa tao mo," he stressed.

"Kung saan-saan man tayo magdating, be a general, a president, a senator, please do not forget. Tatal konti man lang 'yan. Do not forget the philosophy of humanity," he added. PND tor for Technical Services Arturo Fadriquela showed a comprehensive presentation on environmental issues including the battle for Manila Bay and its rehabilitation, some accomplishments of the agency including the cleanup advocacy of water ways and streambanks, hiring of river marshals and cleaners, bantay ilog cleanup program, training on composting and vertical gardening and monitoring of rivers and waterways.

Cavite Governor Jonvic Remulla showered the attendees some enlightening data on water system and the alarming facts on ground water and surface water statistics, emphasizing to everyone the need to act immediately to address the water quality management issues. According to him, comprehensive framework on water sustainability must be establish, zero waste on water or the waste water management action plan must be implemented including water recycling, and no development zone for the upland area until the problem on water sustainability is addressed. In order that the next generation will benefit from it, the governor called the attention of everyone to be vigilant and collaborate to have a sustainable water resources in the community.

As a response to the call for action, pledge of commitment headed by Dr. Emmanuel F. Calairo, Assistant Vice Chancellor for Academic and Research of DLSU-D together with other members of the academe was formed and a consortium was made to help the LGU's in the scientific baseline information for policy development. Other colleges and universities include Cavite State University-Main Campus in Indang, Far Eastern University-Silang, Lyceum of the Philippines-Cavite, Olivarez College Tagaytay, Rogationist College, Technological University of the Philippines, and De La Salle University-Dasmariñas.

Meanwhile, PGENRO Head Annabelle Cayabyab gave a short background on the water and solid waste summit and explained its objectives. She elaborated that Cavite Water Summit was launched on August 20-21, 2015 at CVSU-Indang followed by another leg of discussion held at Summit Ridge Hotel in Tagaytay City on November 9-10, 2017. During the previous summit, numerous topics were tackled and exchange of scientific discussion on water demand management was established. Some possible solutions on water resources problem were realized during the event including the establishment of land management practices to intensify the connectivity's of land and water resources and identify challenges and opportunities in improving water efficiency under the prevailing socio-economic, environmental, and political condition in the Province of Cavite; strengthening the networks between the key players to build efficient and effective response to the need for comprehensive watershed management plan that address impaired and threatened waters; identify the causes of impairment and pollutant sources that need to be controlled to achieve needed load reductions in the major rivers of Cavite, hence, provide management measures; stream bank conservation and rehabilitation along the six major river watersheds; strengthening of the ICM Provincial and Municipal Councils, introducing of rainwater harvesting technologies; identifying pollution sources to achieve needed load reductions and provide the necessary management measures to address them; encouraging multi-stakeholder participation in addressing concerns on water demand management and assist in formulating a feasible action plan to achieve water security. Joint Cavite Water and Solid Waste Summit 2019 on the other hand aims to promote scientific discussions on joint water and solid waste management, focusing on waste segregation at source, composting and recycling as well as some issues to create a comprehensive approach and sustainable water resources and solid waste management programs for the Province of Cavite.

Topics conversed on the first day of the summit include, Green Practices of DLSU-D explained by Ms. Jocelyn Luyon, Environmental Resources and Management Center, DLSU-D; The State of Sanitation in the Philippines: What's Next? elaborated by Engr. Jose Serafin Yu Tecson, President, Partnerships for Water Solutions, Inc Philippines; Surface Water Measurements and Water Demand in the Province of Cavite tackled by Prof. Noel Sedigo, CVSU ; Socio-Economic and water Resources Status in Upland cavite: A Basic for Sustainable Use and Management explained by Dr. Alice Valerio, faculty of the Allied Business Department, CBAA, DLSU-D; Comprehensive water Quality Assessment of the River Networks of Dasmariñas City expounded by Mr. Gideon Legaspi, faculty of the Biological ASciences Department, CSCS, DLSU-D; and implementation of Integrated River Basin management Approach in Cavite Province conversed by Ms. Nancy Bermas, Chief technical Adviser and Project Manager, Partnerships in Environmental Management for the Seas of East Asia (PEMSEA).

Gov. Jonvic Remulla recognizes Publishers and Editors

By Joy V. Estrellado

"You are the last dying breed of media practitioners in the newspaper industry," started Cavite Governor Jonvic Remulla last Wednesday, November 20, 2019. The members, officers, and board of directors of the newly established Cavite Association of Publishers and Editors, Inc. (CAPE) were warmly welcomed by the good governor himself.

CAPE was initially established a couple of months ago. Its mission is to establish unity and good leadership among legitimate publishers and editors in the province of Cavite. There are many projects waiting, all for the welfare of media practitioners and the community. This November 20, at 10 o'clock in the morning, they have been officially recognized by the governor himself as they take their oath of office. The event was held at the office of the governor in the provincial capital, Trece Martires City. "I wonder how you make amends meet, with the internet and the social networking websites being rampant in this modern era. Nevertheless, I don't want you to write news in favor of me. I want you to write what is fair, what is balanced, and what is true." He added.

Also Bayani Zo-

leta, a pioneer local newspaperman in Cavite and Publisher of Cavite Ngay-on told to fellow publishers that the community Newspaper have survived the test of times and "it will not die"

Those who were present were: CAPE President, Webster Ace Paginag; Vice President, Irene Gascon; Secretary, Heidelita Paginag; Treasurer, Milagros Bagaporo; and Public Relations Officer, Joy Estrellado. Among the members of the board who took oath were: Jerry Ancheta, Rosemae Geduriagao, Sonny Anarna, Florendo Cacactin, Engr. Aurelo Bautista, and Andro Amores. Among the active members who were there compose of: Bayani Zoleta, Zerryvi Octavio, Jacquiliou Lirio, Don Russel Nava, Joey Mariscotes, Larry Magtibay, Nestor Mose, and Gretchel Lumas.

"I would like to thank the governor for gracing our oath taking. I would specially like to thank all the members of CAPE who are present here. I am inspired with what the governor said as I see hopeful faces among our peers. We have many projects coming up, and I am glad that the governor is with us all throughout the way," stated President Ace Paginag.

After the oath taking, CAPE members conducted its first meeting to discuss its plans and projects. Congratulations, CAPE Inc.

ativism and enterprise development, inspiring the barangay leaders and conveying their thoughts on entrepreneurship as different projects were being implemented by the province, in coordination with various local and national agencies to enhance the lives of the people and elevate their source of income.

During the forum, Mr. Jose Lito Rozul, Cluster D Head of the Department of Interior and Local Government-Cavite elaborated the process on how to set up Barangay Development Council and allocating funds for livelihood and enterprise development projects. Likewise, Negosyo Serbisyo sa Barangay and other Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) programs and services were presented by Ms. Revelyn Cortez, OIC-DTI-Cavite, reporting their accomplishments and inspiring the members of the micro small and medium sized enterprises to empower their entrepreneurs and scale up their business. She emphasized the need of the budding entrepreneurs to be educated on the new trends in business and the relevance of identifying the communities which have the urgency to be given business orientations and assistance.

On the other hand, Mr. Ricky Martin Velasco, Senior Labor Officer of the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE)-Cavite discussed how to avail the DOLE Integrated Livelihood Program (DILP) and the DOLE-Funded projects. Ms. Jenelyn Dino, Guidance Counselor and focal person for Special Client of the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA) – Cavite lectured on TESDA Abot Lahat Project, with focus on community based training program. Department of Science and Technology (DOST) – Cavite Provincial Director Engr. Raul Castañeda has also presented the DOST programs and services.

In the afternoon, programs and services for agripreneurs were conversed by Mr. Reynato Rozul, Assistant Provincial Agriculturist of the Office of the Provincial Agriculturist (OPA) while business opportunities and trends and other PCLEDO programs and services were conveyed by Ms. Liza Gabatan, Entrepreneurial Division head of PCLEDO. Likewise, Ms. Sheryll Loyola, Livelihood Division head of PCLEDO communicated the guide in starting a livelihood project and explained the importance of cooperative as partner for development.

Capping the program was a question and answer portion that gave the barangay leaders the opportunity to clarify their queries and was thoroughly answered by the speakers and lecturers that enlighten the perception of the attendees.
