

Bishop Pabillo offers Manila Cathedral as vaccination site

Imus LGU and Rotary Club of Imus

On February 1, City of Imus led by Mayor Manny Maliksi started phase 2 of free vaccination against rubella, polio and measles in our health centers with our City Health Office and Rotary Club of Imus.

Manila Archdiocese apostolic administrator Bishop Broderick Pabillo backed the COVID-19 vaccination plan pushed by Manila Mayor Francisco 'Isko Moreno' Domagoso as he offered the Manila Cathedral to become one of the city's vaccination sites.

Bishop Pabillo met with Domagoso, together with Vice Mayor Maria Sheilah 'Honey' Lacuna-Pangan, Fr. Marthy Marcelo, and Fr. Jun Abogado at the Pope Francis Hall of the Manila Cathedral on Tuesday, February 2.

Bishop Pabillo informed the Mayor that the Manila Cathedral can be used as a vaccination site from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on weekdays.

"We thank Bishop Pabillo and the leaders of the Church for offering us the cathedral as a vaccination site. Napakahalaga nito because we need inocula-

"Meron na ang Maynila, pero it's good to have more options so we can ensure the efficiency of the process and the convenience of the people."

Cavite City Planning and Development Office

Clarification on the PhP68M Budget for the Cavite City LGU Operations Modernization and Transition to New Normal Project

The Local Government Unit of Cavite City, as part of its public service continuity planning in the new normal, is looking ahead to bid out and implement the Cavite City LGU Operations Modernization and Transition to New Normal Project (the "Project") this 2021, directed towards an accelerated implementation of reliable, protected, and practical e-Governance.

WHY CONSULTANCY?

The Project is aimed to provide management and technology transfer services, field survey and inventory of properties and business, software engineering services, system and data integration services, technology transfer, and supply of related ICT equipment to its constituents – which falls under the category of "Consulting Services" as the type of procurement project, as defined in Section 5 (I) of the Implementing Rules and Regulations of RA 9184 or the Government Procurement Reform Act.

PROJECT COMPONENTS & OBJECTIVES:

One of the project highlights is the use of software engineering and data science and analytics services to cover government system enhancements for Real Property Tax, Business Permit and Licensing, Treasury Operations, Government Accounting, Budget Management, Personnel Management Information and Payroll, Engineering Operation Information, Market Administration, General Services Information, Executive Information, Health Information Management, Local Civil Registry Information, Document Tracking, Digital Archiving and Library, and Infectious Disease Contract Tracing, among others. In addition to the City's goal of providing access to accurate information and implementing reduced-to-paperless and cashless transactions, the project will launch Web Service Portals aiming to address major activities including general payment handling, miscellaneous transactions and payment, online community tax certificate (CEDULA), business permit and licensing certifications and payment, real property tax order of payment and certifications, office appointment systems, SMS notification system, online barangay registration, and the Geographic Information System for infectious disease mapping.

METHOD OF PROCUREMENT:

Public Bidding

WHY NOT DICT?

The Department of Communications and Technology (DICT) is tasked to lead the digitalization of government units in the country. As much as DICT could pursue needed resources and structural adjustments, an assessment conducted by the Department already identified that the City Government of Cavite's existing ICT systems are not compatible with what they are offering, and the digital transfer of the City's business licensing data will be jeopardized, hence the necessity for the Project. The digitization of data, which the DICT offers to government agencies, is only one (1) component of the entire Project as well.

Youth group initiates seminars in support of waste management campaign

TRECE MARTIRES CITY, Cavite

-- The Sangguniang Kabataan (SK) Federation of Tanza will conduct three leadership and Solid Waste Management seminars in support of the 'Lodi ko si Kap' campaign of the local government for the proper management and disposal of waste.

The said seminars with the theme, "YES na YES na YES! 5Rs Da Best!" is an initiative of the SK Federation headed by SK Federation President Rhon Jay Perdito.

Elaborating on the theme to mean YES (YAP Education on Segregation) emphasizing on the importance of information on the proper disposal of garbage; YES (YAP Enforcement on Segregation) pertaining to the strict enforcement on segregation thru local ordinances; YES (YAP Evaluation on Segregation) refers to the assessment and evaluation of the program if effective. Once found to be ineffective, then an enhanced education seminar will have to be conducted again stated by Perdito.

The program also incorporates the observance of the 5Rs which are Reduce, that aims to limit the use of plastic; Refuse or decline the use of single use plastic for purchased food items or other products; Repair of equipment or other household appliance for continued use; Reuse some things for other decorative and useful purposes like empty plastic bottles or containers for planting and Recycle as bringing other waste materials to the recycling centers.

SK Pedrito said, "Tao rin po ang gumagawa ng basura. If we will be informed and educated on how we can manage properly our wastes, ito po ang pinakamagandang solusyon na ating maibabahagi para po luminis at gumanda ang ating kapaligiran."

(People are the one's making garbage. If we will be informed or educated on how we can properly manage our wastes, this is the best solution we can share to clean and beautify our environment.)

The seminars are slated on February 6, 9, and 11, 2021 at Vista Mall Tanza.

On February 6, the leadership training and YAP Education on Segregation seminar will be facilitated by Sports Engineer Noli Ayo and Environment Science Associate Professor Dr. Noel A. Sedigo. (Ruel Francisco/LGU Tanza) ple," Domagoso added.

The mayor said the Manila Cathedral will now be incorporated into Manila's vaccination roadmap.

"Mag-re-redesign kami ngayon ng aming mga plano para mas maraming ma-vaccinate sa lalong madalang panahon," the mayor said.

Once the Manila City government receives the COVID-19 vaccines approved and authorized by the Philippine national government, Domagoso said medical frontliners would be inoculated within three days.

Other priority groups include senior citizens and those from vulnerable sectors such as informal settler families (ISFs). In response, Bishop Pabillo praised the city government's vaccination plan, particularly because it will be offered to Manila City residents for free.

"Ako'y humahanga rin na may plano na ang city para magbigay ng vaccination na libre sa mga taga-Maynila. Ito po ay isang magandang development at makakaasa po tayo dito," the Manila apostolic administrator said.

"Sana po ang mga tao ay huwag po matakot sa vaccination, sa vaccine, dahil ito ay makakatulong po sa atin upang makaiwas po at mapalakas ang ating sarili at hindi tayo masyadong ma-infect ng sakit na ito," he added.

The Bishop also said the city government may tap Catholic schools to serve as vaccination sites.

"Andyan po ang sakit pero maiiwasan natin ito. Magiging malakas ang ating panlaban sa sakit na ito. Salamat po kay mayor sa mga plano niya na magkaroon ng vaccination sa buong lungsod ng Maynila," he said.

Earlier, Domagoso announced that the city government intends to set up at least 18 mass vaccination sites that would operate from 7 days a week.

One vaccination site would be able to serve 1,000 persons a day, which means all 18 sites would be able to serve 18,000 persons a day or 540,000 persons a month.

Simulation exercises for COVID-19 vaccination operations have already been conducted in anticipation for the arrival of the vaccines. (MPIO/PIA-NCR)

TIMPLADO MAKES STRONGER ‘BARAKO’ COFFEE WITH DOST TRAINING ON FOOD SAFETY

LIPACITY, Batangas – Ala eh! Timpladong tamang tama!, In fact, TIMPLADO, an offshoot company of Circa 1740, underwent a two-day training on Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) to further strengthen, not only their barako (Liberica) coffee blends, but more so their food safety measures in preparation for the opening of its additional markets this year.

There were 13 employees, mostly newly hired, who attended the training on food safety standards in different production processes conducted on 25-26 January at the TIMPLADO Coffee Shop located in Barangay Mataas na Lupa, Lipa, Batangas.

The Department of Science and Technology Region IV-A (CLABARZON) provided the DOST Unified Food Safety Training Modules for MSMEs. The training was facilitated by DOST-CALABARZON

Food Safety Team members composed of Mhark Ellgine Libao, John Michael Florendo, and John Maico Hernandez, who are all from the Provincial Science and Technology Center (PSTC) Batangas.

The training exercise covered topics on basic food hygiene, food hazards (i.e., biological, chemical, physical and allergens), cross-contamination, personnel hygiene, food contact surfaces, pest control, cleaning and sanitation, and documentation. Activities on hand washing, food hazards, and cross-contamination were also conducted to simulate situations during food preparation that affect food safety.

Although food safety practices are already in place, TIMPLADO's Chief Executive Officer, Kathleen Manto, fully recognized the impact that the training provided in improving the knowledge and practices of their employees. For Manto, the training was a boost to the standard procedures they have been following to further improve the quality of their products and ensure their customers' safety. The training ame at an opportune time since the company plans to open additional markets.

On the other hand, Ariestelo Asilo, TIMPLADO's Chief Operating Officer, shared how the training served as a springboard in their application for a License to Operate with the Food and Drug Administration. He also mentioned his hope for the approval of the DOST's SETUP project proposal that can further support their GMP implementation aside from upgrading their processes.

TIMPLADO is a food and beverage company focused on creating rich, full-bodied coffee blends. What is unique with TIMPLADO's products are the interesting variants named after famous Batangueña heroes, namely: Marcela, Gabriela, Teresa, Josefa, Melchora and Gliceria. These names complement the unique flavors of strong barako blends, barako blend with white chocolate and milk, barako blend with coco sugar, barako blend with chili powder and coco sugar.

Furthermore, the branding structure also mirrors how the company empowers and provides livelihood to stay-at-home moms through the packaging of products. Aside from the iconic characterization of their coffee blends, TIMPLADO operates to promote inclusivity by partnering closely with coffee farmers, communities, and markets with the shared commitment in revitalizing the Batangas barako coffee.
