124TH Philippine National Flag

May 28, we commemorate the 124th year since the Philippine National Flag was waved for the very first time.
Year 1898 when the Filipino revolutionaries defeated the Spanish soldiers in the Battle of Alapan in the province of Cavite. As a sign of victory, the National Flag was waved for the first time after the battle. It became an inspiration for the successive victories of the Filipino soldiers in neighboring areas during the uprising, until the Philippines finally gained independence on June 12 that year.
May 28 was declared on March 6, 1965 as National Flag Day or National Flag Day (Proclamation No. 374, s. 1965), as a reminder of the heroism of those who fought for the nation, and to recognize our National Flag as a symbol of freedom and independence.

The award recognizes the unit's vital role in the national government-led HADR efforts for calamity victims, most notably in the aftermath of “Odette” in December 2021 and “Agaton” in April 2022.

It can be recalled that the 546ECB deployed search and rescue teams and HADR equipment to help clear landslide-hit barangays in Baybay City and Mahaplag, Leyte.

PTCAO AND TTAs CONDUCT ONSITE VALIDATION OF PROPOSED TOURISM CIRCUITS IN CAVITE

In line with the recently conducted Tourism Circuit Development Training, the Provincial Government of Cavite, through the Provincial Tourism and Cultural Affairs Office along with representatives from local travel and tour associations, conducted an on-site validation of the proposed tourism circuits in the four (4) tourism nodal points of Cavite. The activity, which ran for six days on May 12-13 and May 17-20, meant to further assess the readiness of the different tourist attractions and establishments in the province and the feasibility of each proposed circuit.

The First Tourism Nodal Point, which covers Cavite City, Kawit, Noveleta, Rosario, Tanza, Imus City, and Bacoor City, is the province's center for history. Thus, its circuit included sites and attractions that represents the history, heritage and culinary of Cavite.

Meanwhile, the circuit in the Second Tourism Nodal Point centers on ecotourism and water fun activities in the towns of Naic, Maragondon, Magallanes, and Ternate. This includes beaches and coves, rivers, and swimming pool resorts. The Third Tourism Nodal Point's proposed circuit is composed of sites and attractions that promotes leisure, health and wellness. These are located in Silang, Amadeo, Indang, Alfonso, Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo, Mendez, and Tagaytay City. Finally, the circuit representing the Fourth Tourism Nodal Point targets golfers and sports enthusiasts to different sites in Carmona, GMA, Dasmariñas City, Gen. Trias City, and Trece Martires City. During the validation, travel and tour agents asked questions regarding a site's available facilities, activities and services offered, and rates, which are major considerations when creating tour packages. The respective local tourism officers were also present to assist and provide suggestions and more information.

PTCAO will later convene the participants to finalize the assessment and proceed with the creation of tour packages. --(Julie Anne L. Rolle)

Army reserve units play key roles in rescue, relief efforts

MANILA — Reserve units of the Philippine Army (PA) play a key role in disaster response, Army chief Lt. Gen. Romeo Brawner Jr. said during his visit to the Reserve Command Philippine Army (RCPA) headquarters in Camp Riego De Dios in Tanza, Cavite on Friday.

"The CGPA (Commanding General of the Philippine Army) lauded Army reservists for playing a crucial role in the relief and rescue efforts that saved lives in the aftermath of calamities, particularly in the aftermath of Typhoon Odette late last year and Tropical Storm Agaton last month," PA spokesperson Col. Xerxes Trinidad said in a statement Saturday.

During the visit, Brawner assured more support for the RCPA headquarters and its line units, which include the Regional Community Defense Groups and Community Defense Centers.

He also underscored the Army leadership's support for the RCPA in terms of personnel, logistics, fuel requirements, and facilities improvement.

Brawner also highlighted the need to strengthen the country's reserve force to bolster the country's defense readiness posture.

He reiterated Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) Chief, Gen. Andres C. Centino's directive to tap reservists for civil-military operations, such as bloodletting and tree-planting activities.

"Let's remain solid as the Philippine Army. Let us continue to be professionals. Let's continue to fulfill our mandate with utmost commitment," Brawner said.

The PA has about 790,000 standby and ready reserves who perform an important role in the implementation of development support and security operations of the AFP, especially in humanitarian assistance and disaster response efforts.

As this developed, Trinidad said the 546th Engineer Combat Battalion (546ECB) of the 53rd Engineer Brigade continues to build temporary homes for families displaced by "Agaton" in Baybay City, Leyte.

The shelters, funded by the Office of the Civil Defense 8 (Eastern Visayas), are being built by Army engineers in cooperation with the Department of Aniya, "Lagi po nating ipagmalaki na dito sa Imus unang iwinagayway ang ating watawat. Atin pong ipagmalaki na Imus talaga ang Flag Capital ng Pilipinas." Ayon naman kay Dr. Francis Bringas, regional director ng DepEd CALABARZON, na sana ay muling maisip at mapagtanto ng lahat na napakahalaga na bigyang galang ang watawat "dahil ito ay simbolo ng ating national identity at simbolo ng ating pagiging Pilipino."
